PRAYER TO THE SAINTS AND ANGELS BEFORE MASS

Angels, Archangels, Thrones, Dominions, Principalities, Powers, heavenly Virtues, Cherubim and Seraphim; all Saints of God, holy men and women, and especially my patrons: intercede for me that I may be worthy to offer this Sacrifice to almighty God, to the praise and glory of His name, for my own welfare and also that of all His holy Church. Amen.

FROM GREEN TO GOLD

The Packers did it! They did what they could not last year; they beat the Vikings and their former quarterback, who has been embroiled in all kinds of controversy of late. It was a rather sloppy game last Sunday in Green Bay, but the Packers came out on top. It is now questionable, ironically, after so many consecutive starts, whether that Vikings field chief even starts this weekend as he suffered two ankle fractures. Where the rest of the season goes for both the Packers and the Redskins is yet to be determined.

One thing that is determined is that this Sunday is the day for our parish's annual Oktoberfest, our German festival for good times, good music, good food, and good drink. It runs from 2:00 to 5:00 P.M. Sunday afternoon at the school. There are games for the children, the succulent roasted pig, the great sausages, and wonderful desserts. This event is not a parish fundraiser, although donations are accepted. It is meant to be a time to bring parishioners of all ages together for an afternoon of fun and sharing one another's fellowship. That can be somewhat difficult for a parish our size. This fest, however, seems to overcome that potential problem and to fulfill that task. I certainly hope and pray it goes well again this year, so plan on joining us! Pray also for good weather.

Last week here I mentioned that I was truly inspired by what I encountered on the parish pilgrimage to Poland. I particularly found the city of Krakow to be a place of great faith. I said last week that I would continue that discussion this week. It really is hard to describe in words what was experienced. We were told that, thankfully, Krakow was not destroyed by the War, so unlike some other cities in Poland the Communists did not have to rebuild this city. It, therefore, maintains the exquisite charm that many European cities have. In addition there are Catholic churches everywhere. It helps that Poland is predominately Catholic. Of course so too is France and Italy along with some other European countries. What makes Poland different, however, is that the people there still actually practice the Faith. In these other places the Catholic culture is there, as it is in Poland to some extent, but the majority of the people, sadly, no longer attend church. Their faith seems to mean little to them. Not in Poland!

Young and old fill the churches we had the privilege of visiting in Poland. As I commented last week nearly every church had adoration, i.e., the Blessed Sacrament was exposed somewhere in the church and people were there praying. I realize this country has been through much with the Nazis (we visited Auschwitz) and the Communists, but one could not help but be struck by what the Faith meant to these people. That in turn was contagious. It was so moving to enter these churches and see the local people, not just the visiting pilgrims, there praying and participating in the various liturgical services—Mass, adoration, vespers, etc. I only wish and pray we here in this country and at St. Mary's could have similar priorities and a similar willingness to really take the Faith so seriously that it would have central place in our lives. This does not mean that we don't live our Faith. Our country is much better than most European ones right now and I think people here at St. Mary's do make God a priority. We, however, could be doing so much more. I remember what it was like when I was growing up in Wisconsin. It is a different situation today, but it need not be. Something we all can work on.

As we conclude this month of October, the month of the Rosary, of respecting life, and of a greater awareness of those with disabilities, we might want to try and make more time for prayer. As November begins we also pray for our deceased loved ones.

In Christ,
 Fr. Kleinmann

PRO-LIFE CORNER

The family is fundamental because it is the place where there germinates in the human soul the first perception of the meaning of life. ... This perception grows in the relationship with the mother and with the father, who are not the owners of the life of the children but the first collaborators with God in the transmission of life and the faith.

Pope Benedict XVI, Palermo, Italy, 10/4/10

Immaculate Heart of Mary, please pray for us.

DIVINE MERCY CORNER

My daughter, I want to instruct you on how you are to rescue souls through sacrifice and prayer. You will save more souls through prayer and suffering than will a missionary through his teachings and sermons alone. I want to see you as a sacrifice of living love, which only then carries weight before Me. You must be annihilated, destroyed, living as if you were dead [dying to self?] in the most secret depths of your being. You must be destroyed in that secret depth where the human eye has never penetrated; then will I find you a pleasing sacrifice, a holocaust full of sweetness and fragrance. And great will be your power for whomever you intercede. Outwardly, your sacrifice must look like this; silent, hidden, permeated with love, imbued with prayer. I demand, My daughter, that your sacrifice be pure and full of humility, that I may find pleasure in it. I will not spare My grace, that you may be able to fulfil what I demand of you. ...You shall accept all sufferings with love. Do not be afflicted if your heart often experiences repugnance and dislike for sacrifice. All its power rests in the will, and so these contrary feelings, far from lowering the value of the sacrifice in My eyes, will enhance it...Although you will not feel My presence on some occasions, I will always be with you. Do not fear; My grace will be with you...

(Jesus to St. Faustina)

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

With our increasingly busy schedules we may find it hard to make time for God, but with any friend (and He is our Best Friend), He is waiting for us to visit. If Jesus were actually visible in church, everyone would run to welcome Him, yet Our Lord is literally present, hidden in the Sacred Host. Our faith takes us beyond human appearances so that when we see Christ in the Sacred Host, we can see Him in the preborn child, the poor, the weak, the terminally ill, and even those who are angry with us. When we come to Jesus in Adoration we can thank Him for all our blessings and He in return will help us to grow in love and holiness and will assist us in correcting our weaknesses.

Think of spending just one hour per week with Our Lord. Sign-up sheets for a new session running from November through January will be in the back of the church. Adoration is on Thursdays from 12:30– 7:30 P.M., concluding with a holy Hour. For more information please call Mary Stier at 703.768.7167.

TO ALL ST. MARY'S PARISHIONERS: You are cordially invited to attend a special Memorial Mass on Tuesday, November 2, 2010 at 7:30 P.M. in remembrance of and for the repose of the souls of all St. Mary's Parishioners who have departed this life and gone on to the next life. A reception will follow at St. Mary's Lyceum, 313 Duke Street.

CARPENTER'S SHELTER: On November 4th, we will be serving dinner to the residents of the shelter. Sign-up for food donations in the book at the back of the church. Thank you! Questions? Please call Barbara Halicki at 703.370.7026.

St. Martin de Porres and St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us.
 All the Angels and Saints in heaven, pray for us.
